TUESDAY

Maya's New Backpack

Maya was excited to start the new school year. She was excited to see her friends again and to meet her new teacher. She was most excited about using her new backpack. She sat down on the floor with all of her new school supplies and her bright pink backpack.

First, Maya put her crayons in the backpack. She would use the crayons to draw pictures for her new teacher, Mrs. Smith. Next, she put her scissors in the backpack. She could use the scissors to cut out hearts for her best friend. Next, Maya put in her new princess pencils. She thought of all the stories she would write with them. Finally, Maya put a bottle of glitter glue in her backpack. It would make everything she made sparkle.

When she had everything put in its place, Maya carefully zipped up the backpack and put it next to the door. She smiled as she thought of what a great year it would be.

1. What is the first thing Maya put in her new backpack?

2. What did Maya put in her backpack right before she put her glitter glue in?

3. What did Maya plan on using her scissors for?

4. What is the name of Maya's new teacher?

Bats and Birds

Both bats and birds can fly.

You might see them on a rooftop.

In other ways, bats and birds are very different.

Birds have feathers. Bats have fur.

Birds have beaks. Bats have teeth.

Bats hang upside-down when they rest.

Birds never do that!

Bats and birds are very easy to tell apart when they are not flying.

1. How are bats and birds alike?

- A. Both have feathers.
- B. Both hang upside-down.
- C. Both can fly.

2. How are bats and birds different?

- A. Bats land on rooftops.
- B. Birds have teeth.
- C. Bats have fur.

3. Write another way that bats and birds are different.

FRIDAY

Little Bluebird

There was a little bluebird up in a tree.
I looked up at him and he looked down at me.
He looked so pleasant just sitting with a smile.
That I stared at him for a little while.
But then he did something that took me by surprise.

He smacked me with a snowball right between my eyes!
